

Daniela Morar

---

CONTACT INFORMATION	Department of Economics Yale University 27 Hillhouse Ave, #14 New Haven, CT, 06511	☎ 503-896-4583 ✉ daniela.morar@yale.edu https://www.danielamorar.com
EMPLOYMENT	Post-Doctoral Associate Department of Economics, Yale University , 2018- present
EDUCATION	University of Michigan , Ann Arbor, MI Ph.D., Economics, 2018 M.A., Economics, 2013 Reed College , Portland, OR B.S., Mathematics-Economics, 2009
RESEARCH FIELDS	Education, Labor, Development
WORKING PAPERS	“Foreign instructors and student STEM outcomes” “Undergraduate research experience and persistence in STEM” with Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein
PAPERS IN PROGRESS	“Gender and persistence in STEM” with Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein “Female peers and STEM outcomes” with Catalina Franco “Widening success chances for girls in math: Evidence from low income schools in Colombia” with Luz Abadía and Gloria Bernal
PUBLICATIONS	“Dominos and Sandpiles.” Electronic Journal of Combinatorics . Volume 22(1), 2015
RESEARCH EXPERIENCE	Research Assistant To Jason Owen-Smith and Margaret Levenstein, The Institute for Social Research, University of Michigan 2014–present To Steve Lonn and Christopher Brooks, Learning, Education and Design Lab, School of Information, University of Michigan 2014 To Kevin Stange and Daniel Kreisman, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan 2013–2014 To Jeffrey Parker, Economics Department, Reed College 2008–2009 To David Perkinson, Mathematics Department, Reed College 2007  Summer Research Apprenticeship 2010 With Scott Page, University of Michigan Research Analyst 2009–2010 ECONorthwest, Education Division, Portland, OR  Research Assistant 2009 Northwest Economic Research, Portland, OR

TEACHING EXPERIENCE	Course Director Introductory Microeconomics, Yale University	2018-present
	Guest lecture Introductory Microeconomics, Yale University	2019
	Instructor Introduction to Data Analysis and Econometrics, Yale University	2019
	Graduate Student Instructor Sports Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan	2017
	Introduction to Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan	2011–2013
	Development Economics, Economics Department, University of Michigan	2014
	Teaching Assistant Introduction to Algebraic Geometry, Reed College/Park City Math Institute	2008
SKILLS	Mathematics Tutor and Grader Mathematics Department, Reed College	2006–2009
	Computer Programming Proficient in STATA, Microsoft Suite (Excel, Word, PowerPoint, Access), Mathematica, LaTeX Working knowledge of R, Python, Matlab, Java, Django, Sage
	Languages English: fluent (written and verbal) Romanian: native language Spanish: limited working proficiency German: basic knowledge
	CONFERENCES AND SEMINARS
	2020: Washington Area Labor Economics Symposium, Association for Education Finance and Policy (AEFP), Society of Labor Economists Annual Meeting, Labor/Public Economics Workshop (Yale University)
	2019: Association for Education Finance and Policy(AEFP), Labor/Public Economics Workshop (Yale University)
	2017: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan) x2, ISR-Zwerdling Seminar in Labor Economics (University of Michigan)
	2016: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan), ISR-Zwerdling Seminar in Labor Economics (University of Michigan), Summer Seminar (University of Michigan)
	2015: Causal Inference in Education Research Seminar (University of Michigan)
HONORS AND AWARDS	University of Michigan, Department of Economics, Summer Research Fellowship (2011)
	University of Michigan, Regents Scholarship (2010)
	Reed College, Phi Beta Kappa (2009)
	Reed College, commendations for excellence (2006-2009)
	Reed College, Undergraduate Initiative Research Grant, 2007
SERVICE	Referee for Economic Development and Cultural Change
	President of Romanian Student Association at University of Michigan (2013-2018)	